

Heart for Haiti

Multi-Band Benefit Gig for Haitians' Relief, organized by Templetonians

A simple ad in Criagslist brings an overwhelming response, an outpouring of kindness, generosity and proof that Vancouver musicians and everyday people do care about global tragedy. Five bands, The Irish Wakers, Ready Steady Go, Drohan, Ras-Binghi and the Reggae Disciples, and Three Row Barley, along with a swarm of volunteers, have pooled their talents and resources to assist the people of Haiti. This is a street-level event borne of a common heart. Come, be a part of it.
